Your Monthly Gas Use At a Glance

CCF: Basic measurement of the volume of gas used. One CCF equals one hundred cubic feet.

Degree Day: A measure of coldness based on the extent to which the daily mean temperature falls below 65°F. For example, on a day when the average temperature is 35°F, there would be 30 degree days experienced.

Therm Factor: The factor which converts your gas usage from CCF into therms, which is a measurement of the heating value of the gas used. The energy density of the gas is measured every day to arrive at the volume to energy factor.

Therm: A therm is a measurement of the amount of heat energy in natural gas, equal to 100,000 BTUs. A BTU, is the quantity of heat required to raise the temperature of one pound of water by one degree Fahrenheit. To calculate therms, multiply the CCF used by the Therm Factor.

Charges

Customer Charge: Recovers the basic cost of providing service to each customer regardless of gas use, i.e. meter reading, billing and account maintenance. Included in this charge is the customer's contribution to the Energy Audit Program.

Distribution Charge: The cost of operating, maintaining, and completing essential investments to Liberty's distribution system to continue to deliver safe and reliable service to our community and customers.

Distribution Adjustment Charge: Includes customer contribution to environmental and industry restructuring programs.

Cost of Gas: The cost of purchased, storage and interstate transmission of gas.

Revenue Decoupling: This adjustment is intended to help manage monthly energy costs by eliminating excessive high or low gas bills due to substantial changes in temperature. This change encourages customers to pursue energy efficiency opportunities and reduce energy costs.

Energy Efficiency Charge: The cost of energy efficiency program services offered by the company.
